

We had the honor to get in hand one really great book dedicated to the world famous Italian AF's acrobatic team "Frecce Tricolori". About two years have passed since the initial publishing in September 2010, by DeAgostini the book carries the title "Frecce Tricolori – un volo lungo 50 anni" and represents actually the official publication of the Italian AF for the 50th Anniversary of the acrobatic team . The book is written in Italian and English language; it is a hardcovered photographic album of 128 pages. The size is huge measuring 44×30 cm (please see photo with euro coin for comparison). It contains more than 220 photos celebrating the 50 operational seasons of the Italian Aerobatic Display Team.

The book analyses the role of the Pattuglia Acrobatica Nazionale (Italian Aerobatic Team) within the Aeronautica Militare (Italian Air Force) and describes its organisation, its special characteristics, and its history. The various chapters of the volume unveil all the "secrets" of the Frecce Tricolori, from the aircraft flown to the flying programme, from the roles to the pilots' equipment, with information capable of satisfying even the most discriminating taste and images taken by the PAN, by the Troupe Azzurra of the ItAF, by the Author and by the famous photographer Katsuhiko Tokunaga.
