

The Demonstration Team of Individual T-6A Aircraft is an ambitious program that aims to disseminate and foster aviation idea in the Greek society and to raise the morale of the Armed Forces while in parallel promotes the actions of the Hellenic Air Force personnel in general to the public. The aircraft used to carry air demonstration is the training aircraft T-6A Texan II. For more information please visit the official web-site here.