

Emblem:

Introduction:

Hellenic Air Force Training Command (HATC) was set up on July 30 1955,

In 1956

HATC

was reestablished at the State Aircraft Factory (SAF) fa

In year 1968 the unit's name transforms from "31st Hellenic Air training HQ" into "31st Hellenic Air Traini

In year 1979 the final change was implemented to get the title as kept until today and that is "Hellenic Ai

Today, the Hellenic Air Training Command is still based in the Dekeleia Air Base, 20 Km North-West of

Mission:

Hellenic Air Force Training Command's mission is to plan, program and monitor the provided training to

Specifically we could select the following main tasks:

- The Air Training of the Cadets and the graduating 1st Lieutenants.
- The Academic, Military and physical training of the HAF Military Academies (HAFA, Technical NCO)
- The training provided at the further education-specialisation schools of the HAF permanent staff.
- The training (both basic and specialty) provided to the 5 year Service Volunteers and to the conscripts.

Units:

120 Air Training Wing

123 Technical Training Wing

124 Basic Training Wing

Hellenic Air Force Academy