

We proudly present you a book that every Hellenic Air Force history enthousiast should have in his/her bookcase. It is a book published recently by the Hellenic Air Force Air History Service and presents the route of Hellenic Aerobatic Teams from 1954 up to 1968

The book counts 208 pages, is softcovered and as already written has been published by the H ellenic Air Force Air History Service
. Responsible for the authorship and reserach was the the retired
Air Vice-Marshal
Vardis Papadakis
. What is described inside the book is exactly what its title describes that is the history of Hellenic Aerobatic Teams from 1954 to 1968 and was written to celebrate the 60 years of Hellenic Air Force jets in service (1952-2012).

All chapters are based on testifications of pilots who participated actually in such Aerobatic Teams like the following:

- Acroteam - 4 Aces (Kare ton Asson) flying with F-84G Thunderjet
- Acroteam flying with F-86E Sabre
- Hellenic Flame flying with F-86E Sabre
- New Hellenic Flame flying with F-5A Freedom fighter

The presentation is dedicated to the recently decesead, retired Air Commodore Emmanouel Papadimitropoulos .

At last but not least our sincere thanks goes directly to the commander of the Hellenic Air Force Air History Museum

Wing Commander Nikolaos Sofianos
for the book donation and more over for his exceptional contribution and valuable help for the preparation of the current article.
